Rome, Dec. 5. N. S.

THE Pope is at preſent ſomewhat better, his Feaver being abated, however his Recovery, by reaſon of his great Age, is ſtill much doubted; And there being no manner of likelihood that he can be in a condition to go abroad at the opening of the Jubilee, he has already named Cardinal Barberini to perform the Ceremony of opening St. Peter's Gate, and intends for this purpoſe to give him the Character of his Legate à Latere; But if the Pope ſhould die before Chriſtmaſs Eve, the Jubilee muſt then be put off till a new Pope is choſen. The Prince of Monaco, Ambaſſador from France, is fallen ill of a very violent Feaver. A Sum of 5000 Crowns has by the Pope's Order been paid out of his Treaſury to Signior Ferdinando, who has the Care of the new Buildings at Port Anzo, to be employed in repairing the Damages they have lately ſuſtained there by the breaking in of the Sea.

The Gallies of Turſis, which brought from Barcelona the Duke d'Uceda Ambaſſador of Spain to the Pope, having been forced into Villa Franca by ſtreſs of Weather, his Excellency came from thence in a Felucca, and arrived here the 29th paſt; He ſent a Courier to the Prince of Vaudemont to give him notice of his arrival, and on the 2d Inſtant his Excellency ſet out for Milan to make that Prince a Viſit, after which he will proceed on his Journey to Rome.

The Duke of Mantua is ſtill here, and it's believed he will put off his Journey to Rome, unleſs the Pope recovers. Our laſt Letters from Dalmatia give an Account, that the Venetian and Turkiſh Commiſſioners continued their Conferences at Caſtelnovo for ſettling the Limits, and in all appearance will quite finiſh this Buſineſs in a ſhort time. The Ship called the Leeds Galley arrived here this day from England.

Copenhagen, Dec. 19. The day is not yet fixed for the King of Denmark's departure for Holſtein, but part of his Servants are already ſent away, and thoſe who are to attend him in his Journey, are commanded to be ready on the firſt Orders they ſhall receive. A Courier arrived here this week from the King's Miniſter at the Court of Sweden, who was immediately ſent back again with an anſwer to the Diſpatches he brought. A large Man of War was Launched here yeſterday, and Orders are given for building three more with all poſſible diligence. The new Levies for reinforcing the Daniſh Regiments and other Warlike Preparations, are continued with great Application; And they talk here, of fitting out a ſtrong Squadron of Ships againſt the Spring.

Vienna, Decemb. 12. The young Princeſs, Daughter to the King of the Romans, was Chriſtned the 9th Inſtant, and named Maria-Joſepha-Benedictina-Antonia-Zaviera-Philippina. Count de Harrach, High Steward to the Emperor, is very much Indiſpoſed. Count Lemberg, Ambaſſador from this Court to the Pope, has ſent away his Equipage, and intends himſelf to ſet out from hence very ſpeedily on his Journey to Rome. An Expreſs is come hither from Count Marſigly the Imperial Commiſſioner for ſettling the Limits, with an Account, that the Turks propoſe, in order to adjuſt the Matter in diſpute about the Town of Novi, that the ſaid Town and all its Dependences on this ſide the River Unna ſhall be left to the Emperor, and all the Land belonging to it on the other ſide the ſaid River to the Grand Signior, provided the Germans will demoliſh the new Fortreſs of Unna, but this laſt Condition the Court ſeems unwilling to conſent to. Our Letters from Peterwaradin bring Advice, that Count Otting, the Emperor's Ambaſſador to the Grand Signior, went from thence on the 5th Inſtant with Count Guido of Staremberg, the Baron of Nehm Governor of Peterwaradin, and divers other Perſons of Quality, to Salankemen, near which Town a Place was marked out for his Excellency's meeting the Turkiſh Ambaſſador, which was to be performed the 7th with a great deal of Formality.

Several Regiments of Horſe lately come from Denmark into the Dutchy of Holſtein, are Quartered in and about Flensberg.
